SCHOOL SONG

Let our voices loudly ringing
Echo far and near
Song of praise
Our children singing
To thy memory dear.

All the days we've been together
Fondly we recall
Days of fair or stormy weather
Thou hast gladdened all.

Hail, New London Alma Mater
Thy dear praise we cry
Grateful we will love thee truly
Hail, New London High.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year nineteen hundred and forty-six a group of sixty-five excited children entered New London School for the first time. Due to the large enrollment our first grade was divided into two classes and remained divided through most of our grammar grade years.

In these first eight years our class lost twenty-one students but we were fortunate in gaining fifteen new students.

In the year of nineteen hundred and fifty-four our class finally entered the ninth grade as green freshmen with an enrollment of fifty eight students. Again due to the large number of eager students it was necessary that we be divided into three classes. Our class advisors for the year were Mr. L. A. Price, Mr. Max P. Webb, and Miss Myrtle Bescher. During this year we lost thirteen students and were unfortunate in not gaining any new ones.

In the year nineteen hundred and fifty-five we entered the tenth grade with thirty-seven members. Consisting of two classes we lost three members, Shirley Jones, Julia Broadway, and Millie Sides but were fortunate in gaining a former member, Joyce Lowder. Our class advisors were Mr. Joe D. Kelly and Mr. L. A. Price. The main attraction of this year was a party at Happys' Lake.

As juniors of New London High our successful events were the Junior-Senior Banquet, the Junior play "Finders Creepers", and keeping the concession stand at basketball games.

For high achievement, outstanding qualities of leadership and nobel character eight of our Junior class were inducted into the National Beta Club: Carolyn Russell, Katherine Griffin, Faye Hinson, Jackie McSwain, Donald Britt, Donald Griffin, Ronald Furr and Jerry Harward. We lost Charles Doby, Jimmy Poplin, and Dewey Russell. We only gained one new student, Steve Saunders. The class advisor was Mrs. Dorothy Valsame.

In nineteen hundred and fifty-seven we became seniors with an enrollment of thirty-eight members. During the year we gained three more students, Ginger Clark, Barbara Allred, and Tommy Lambert making an enrollment of forty-one seniors. Our advisor is Mrs. Martha Rogers.

The project of the senior class is the publication of the yearbook, "The Londoneer", with Donald Britt as editor. The main attraction was the senior play, "Call Me Penny".

Prophet

Last Will And Testament

I, John Wayne Lentz, leave this place to the birds.

I, Faye Russell, leave my position as store manager to anyone who is willing to do it.

I, Carolyn Lowder, leave my giggles to Doris and Minnie Pearl.

I, Shirley Hardister, leave my place in the senior class to my sisters, Sue and Linda.

I, Mary Alice Ledbetter, do bequeath my talented hand to Carol Huneycutt.

I, Faye Hinson, leave my position on the Owl Staff to David Allred.

I, Jimmie Smith, leave.

I, Tim Huneycutt, leave my ability to pitch shutouts to Lanny Cranford with his backing he will need it.

I, Tommy Lambert, leave my ability to love girls to anyone who thinks he can handle the job.

I, Jerry Harward, leave my ability to pass Physics and never open a book to Doug Miller.

I, Carol Holmes, leave my corner in the boiler to anyone who will attend to it as well as I.

I, Bonnie Morton, leave my ability to get married to any girl who's willing to give a chance.

I, Gene Clayton, leave my ability to go steady with one girl and flirt with all the rest to anyone who can do it and get by with it.

I, Jimmie Clark, leave my knowledge of Physics to Mickey Clayton.

I, Jack Hopkins, leave school.

I, Donald Griffin, leave my place in the Beta Club to anyone who thinks he is smart enough to get in.

I, James Pickler, leave my bus to anyone who wants to drive it on cold mornings.

I, Tamara Howard, hereby leave my plain hair style to Barbara Pennington.

I, Ned Bullock, leave my ability to quit basketball every year, when half the season is over, to Oliver Doby.

I, Keith Burris, leave my ability to ride a motorcycle to another crazy mixed-up kid.

I, Annette Turner, leave my seat in Physics class to all the poor Juniors who didn't take General Science.

I, Richard Turner, leave my catchers position to anyone who can wear those rags.

I, Hazel Burgess, do will my quiet ways to Judy Cagle.

I, Sue Hatley, do will my ability to study to my sister Linda.

I, Barbara Allred, leave my weakness for being talked into any job, at any time, to Charles Griffin.

I, Frances Plyler, leave my position as reporter to Doris Russell; Doris collect the news.

I, Katherine Griffin, leave my ability to date boys going steady and stay alive, to Jan Purser.

I, Ginger Clark, leave my ability to play forward and guard to Sue Isenhour; good luck girl!

I, Evelyn Bizuk, leave my seat in Mrs. Rogers English class to Doris Russell in hopes she can use it to better advantage than I did.

I, Genell Whitley, leave my talking ability to anyone who can talk during Mr. Fesperman's class.

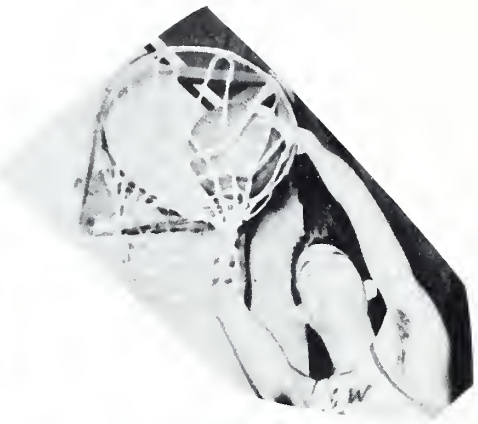

I, Darriell Chandler, leave my position as basketball manager to anyone who wants a free pass to all the games.

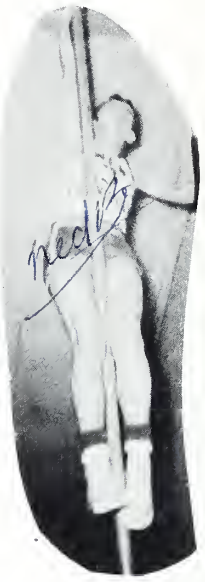

I, Linda Burris, leave my ability to tell the truth to Peggy Ann Holt.

I, Donald Britt, leave my position as editor of the annual to David Allred in hopes that he will do a better job than I.
